Date: 9th September 2019

St Peter's PTA has received nominations for four PTA positions for the 2019-2020 school year. There was only one nomination each for the post of vice chair and secretary, these posts will be filled by the following parents:

Vice chair- Amanda Smith, parent of Marybeth in Year 2

Secretary – Rona White, parent of Mya in EYFS

The election for chair is as follows:

- Selina Panayides parent of Sophia, Year 3 and Theodore in EYFS
- Serena Dyett parent of Daijaun in Year 3 and Shamyah in Year 6

Selina Panayides:

'I believe I am a suitable candidate as I have a lot of experience in fundraising, organisation and teaching. I am an entrepreneur who thrives in supporting others, encouraging growth and design. I have masses of ideas to help the school and engage the children in fundraising and community activities.'

Serena Dyett:

'I am a massive fan of the area and consider myself lucky to live in such a diverse community. I have experience of PTA chair at St Peter's. I enjoy listening to ideas and working as a team who share one goal, taking on challenges and learning from experiences and making improvements. I would be delighted to meet as many parents as possible to see what you want from the PTA or better still, what you think we should do and how you think we should operate '

Place a X for the parent you are voting for.

Serena Dyett

Selina Panayides

Return by Friday 13th September 2019 to the school office. Elected officers will be immediately in post after the election.
